The Discovery of the New Book of Deuteronomy Not Exciting Much Excitement.

Dean Hodges Trying Its Power to Convince the Party in a Catholic Book.

The Proposed Visit of Bishop and Rector to Congregational Religious Body.

The Churches.

The Lincoln Street Congregational Church will be closed during the remainder of August.

The Rev. E. E. Wilson, of this city, has been appointed by the Presbyterian Board Secretary, to take charge of the Southwest Synod, with headquarters at Denver.

The Rev. J. A. Hunt has entered upon his duties as the pastor of the Chicago Avenue Universalist Church, and a reception of the congregation will be held this evening.

The work of BISHOP has been completed and the new Catholic Cathedral in Minneapolis, and Bishop Keane has dedicated the building. The cost of the edifice was $250,000.

An English paper quotes the author of "Ben Hur" and "The Fair God" as saying: "I am a poor writer, and I know it. There are many better than I am. But I am a Christian, and I thank God for it."

The Rev. Thomas Dowling, of Boston, who is leaving Trinity Church to go to Europe, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered in the open air, if the weather permits.

The Indications of the Pacific Coast Methodist Episcopal Church, recently published, show a membership of 70,000, a gain of 3,000 during the year. The Conference will meet in September in San Francisco.

Archbishop Elder, of Ohio, the successor of Archbishop Purcell, recently consecrated two bishops, one for the diocese of Cleveland and the other for Zanesville, Ohio.

Bishop Hamilton is coming to this country on a special commission from the Pope to look into the affairs of the Irish Catholic Church. He is a member of the Irish parliament.

The Rev. Dr. Hillis, of the Central Church, Brooklyn, has accepted a call to the Central Church, Chicago, and will preach his last sermon in Brooklyn on Sept. 1. He will begin his work in Chicago on Sept. 15.

Bishop Keane has dedicated the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Duluth, at which the Archbishop of Milwaukee officiated. The Cathedral cost $100,000.

At Bethel College, Wisconsin, Methodist Episcopal, arrangements are making for the erection of a new dormitory, to be known as Wesley Hall. There will be accommodations for 100 students.

The Rev. Dr. Hillis, of the Central Church, Brooklyn, has accepted a call to the Central Church, Chicago, and will preach his last sermon in Brooklyn on Sept. 1. He will begin his work in Chicago on Sept. 15.

The Rev. Father Dowling, of Boston, who is leaving Trinity Church to go to Europe, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered in the open air, if the weather permits.
